NEW RELEASE

The LOTUSCD was released on February 26 in the U.S. When Carlos was working with CBS on the sequencing of the CD he heard a song which had been titled Savor on the original album and realized that it was actually a jam. That song has now been titled Mr. Udo on the CD.

The Festival album has also been recently released on CD.

Guinean musician Mory Kante has released an album titled TOUMA on the Mango label and Carlos' guitar can be heard on the song Soumba.

SANTANA AT ROCK IN RIO II

The Santana band left for Rio De Janeiro the day before the War in the Persian Gulf broke out to perform at 'Rock In Rio II'. Originally the band was scheduled to play one show. However, when other musicians were unable to travel to Brazil, the concert promoters asked Carlos if he would stay and do a second show. Carlos said yes and proceeded to put together the most well-received show of the two week event.

For the second show Carlos brought Djavan, a Brazilian singer/guitarist, Pat Metheny and Jilberto Gil together with the Santana Band for a two hour set. The critics overwhelmingly agreed that the musicianship and passion of the performance left the most enduring impression on the people of Brazil.

Unfortunately MTV did not elect to feature Santana during its coverage of 'Rock In Rio II'.

I have received many letters over the last few months inquiring about CD's and albums that people have been purchasing with titles like Live From Amsterdam and Jingo and More Famous Tracks. These albums are not authorized and are nothing more than 'bootleg' recordings. Be aware that when you purchase these types of recordings the sound quality is usually very poor.

BAMMIES

Carlos brought the Caribbean All-Stars together with 13 Native American musicians and members of his own band to perform at the 14th annual event.

Carlos also teamed with Tramaine Hawkins on his song Somewhere In Heaven which was dedicated to Stevie Ray Vaughan. One newspaper claimed that it was the vocal performance of the evening.
