

CARLOS TALKS ABOUT SANTANA/BECK TOUR

FINAL 1995 CONCERTS

Sat 30 Dec Anaheim, CA

Arrowhead Pond

Sun 31 Dec San Francisco, CA

Tent at the foot of Market Street

The SFNYE (San Francisco New Year's Eve) will be sponsored by Apple . Information about the show will be up on their Website. Anyone on the Internet will be able to go to Apple's website (<http://www.apple.com>) and pull up information about SFNYE. The website will have a ground plan including each stage and performance schedule for the evening. There will be a listing for each band or performer that could include still pictures, biographies and audio or video clips. You will also be able to see pictures of last year's event, make restaurant reservations, and get directions and parking and transportation information as well. Even more exciting, Apple has decided to debut their new Quick Time Live software at the event and to video and still photograph the event "live" to put on the Internet during the actual show. There will also be kiosks at the show so that SFNYE patrons will be able to log onto the Internet and send New Year's greetings across the globe. We hope to see many of you at the event and those of you who cannot attend in person we hope will be with us via the Internet!

HAPPY NEW YEAR! 1st 1996 SHOW:

Fri 5 Jan Las Vegas, NV

Alladin Hotel

October 30, 1995

I feel really grateful that so many fans came to see us. We got a chance to try out new directions, new songs, newer expressions and we were able to create with Tony Lindsay and reach new heights as a band and as individuals.

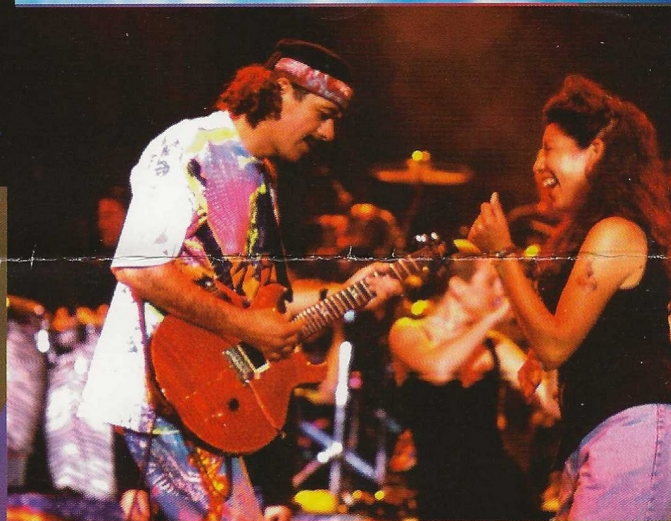

I especially treasure sharing the stage with Keb' Mo' and Angelique Kidjo. Although each night was very special, there were some performances that were totally spectacular, such as the last show at the Paramount Theatre in New York City, jamming with Vernon Reid and Rodney Holmes. We played a composition by master guitarist, Sonny Sharrock, that raised the energy level to a glorious crescendo.

Jamming with Angelique Kidjo brought the audience to their feet. Overall, the consistency of each musician in the Santana Band made for a perfect tour and a wonderful musical adventure.

I want to express my gratitude to CT, Chester Thompson, for his soulfulness, Karl Perazzo for his brilliant mercurial energy, Raul Rekow, for his heart power, Billy Johnson for his consistent groove, Myron Dove, for his joyful, solid foundation, and Tony Lindsay, for his graciousness.

Home For The Holidays, starring Holly Hunter and an all-star cast has asked to use Evil Ways as recorded by the original Santana Band as part of the soundtrack for this film.

You will be able to hear the music of Santana off Broadway beginning November 2. Europa (Earth's Cry, Heaven's Smile) will be used in the play Sacrilege by Diane Shaffer. The play stars Ellen Burstyn, John Forsythe and Giancarlo Esposito and concerns the struggle between a nun and the hierarchy of the Catholic Church. Carlos himself is even mentioned in the play. It will be showing at the Belasco Theatre in New York City.

Many of you saw Angelique Kidjo open for the Santana/Jeff Beck tour this year and now you will be able to hear Carlos on her new CD, Fife. The two tracks that you can hear Carlos on are Naima and Sound of the Drums. The planned release date is February 1996 on the Mango/Island label.

Sunchaser, a movie starring Woody Harrelson and Jon Seda will include Samba Pa Ti from the Sacred Fire CD as part of the soundtrack. We do not have a release date for this project. Please check your local movie schedules.

BET (Black Entertainment Television) completed a 2 hour special on Carlos that had it's first showing on September 27 and will be shown again on January 25th. Please check your local listings, BET is a cable channel and air times and dates do vary.

There are three song books currently in the works. Dance of the Rainbow Serpent will be released as a 3-book boxed set. These books will contain all 34 of the songs included in the CD box set. The planned release date is November 1995 and is published by Warner Bros. publications. The Hal Leonard publishing company plans to release two Santana song books, Santana Signature Licks is a book and CD package which will enable you to listen to the 'licks' on CD and then see how to play them in the book. Santana's Greatest Hits will be released as a book only. Both of these books will contain the same 17 song list:

Black Magic Woman
El Nicoya
Everybody's Everything
Everything's Coming Our Way
Evil Ways
Hope You're Feeling Better
Incident At Neshabur
Jingo
Mother's Daughter
Oye Como Va
Persuasion
Samba Pa Ti
Se A Cabó
Singing Winds, Crying Beasts
Song Of The Wind
Soul Sacrifice
Toussaint L'Overture

These books will be released in February of 1996.

1995 HOLIDAY GREETING

*Let there be light.
 Let there be joy.
 Let there be love and understanding.*

*Love gives birth to compassion.
 Understanding gives birth to peace.
 We send you our wishes for wisdom and oneness
 with all life.*

Blessings in '96

NEW VIDEO FEATURING THE SANTANA RHYTHM SECTION

Perhaps no other force in popular music has so powerfully propelled Afro-Cuban music onto the worldwide music stage as has Santana. From Afro-Cuban To Rock. Adventures in Rhythm is the first video to demonstrate the implementation of the rhythms of Cuba into non-traditional settings. This video showcases Raul Rekow and Karl Perazzo on congas, timbales and other percussion instruments.

Accompanying these giants of rhythm are Billy Johnson and Myron Dove on drums and bass, respectively and renowned keyboardist Rebeca Mauleon.

This video clearly instructs while you enjoy rare concert footage of the Santana band bringing these rhythms to life. It is the perfect combination of education and entertainment, demonstrating traditional rhythms including guajira, guaguanco, palo, cha cha, Rumba Columbia and Afro-Cuban 6/8, and provides instruction for each on various percussion instruments. The band then applies these rhythms to actual musical arrangements.

The video, produced by LP (Latin Percussion) is available now at music stores and drum shops. It will be released internationally in both VHS and PAL formats. In the U.S., order by calling 1-800-526-0508.

After our last newsletter article on Greenpeace we received a few letters from fans who applauded the article but questioned our own recycling policies. We do not print on each of our printed newsletters and cards the fact that the paper used is recycled, but rest assured that it is. Our policy is to use recycled paper on everything we print and those things that are printed by others for us. This has been our policy for years. Thanks to all of you who responded positively to the article and I hope that this answers your questions.
